

The Israeli Knesset issued regulations to justify this policy. Thus, the Arab resident in Israel and in the Occupied Territories that were occupied in 1967, is always fighting bravely in order to face this policy and to save their right in thier land and to continue living on it.

The story of Midya village is one of a hundred repetitive stories of Arab villages, sites and land that are confiscated and their owners are expelled. Every day, there is a new family that is expelled and denied all its natural freedom as citizens living in their country.

