

Middle East might supply an understanding. On one hand, the turmoil makes people look for new ideas. On the other hand, the religious mentality of the people is receptive to accepting ideologies as means of salvation. It is very common in the Middle East to blame "Arab socialism" for the defeat of June, not the performance of the Arab armies!