Dear Democratic Palestine,

I was delighted to find a detailed and thoughtful review of my book, Israel: An Apartheid State, in the recent issue of your publication (No 29, June 1988).

May I respond to your concluding comment and continue the dialogue, aiming, indeed, to render thinking and analysis richer and more precise.

As further contribution to this debate, please find enclosed the petition For Palestine, signed by eleven anti-Zionist Jewish citizens of the state of Israel. The signatures to this petition were collected at the RETURN conference «The Case Against Zionism: Zionism and Jewish Identity», London, June 1988. You will find the relevant documents enclosed.

With all good wishes
