

Wilson, C.B. (1984), "The Centre of the World and the Interpretation of Architecture", Edinburgh Architecture Research, Vol. II.

Wilson, C.T. (1906), Peasant Life in the Holy Land, John Murray, London.

Wolf, E. (1966), Peasants, Prentice-Hall, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey.

INTERVIEWS

Following are the identification of persons interviewed by the writer:

1. Abu-Adnan, (1984-1986), a prominent member of the Barghouthi clan, from the Dawood sub-clan, age 75.
2. Abu-Hani, (1984-1986), the son of the village school (Kuttab) sheikh, from the 'Alem family, age 77.
3. Abu-Nada, (1984-1986), a prominent member of the Shu'aibi clan, age 85.
4. Abu-Nayef, (1985) recently the Mukhtar of the village from the lower quarter, age 65.
5. Abu-Ziad, (1985) the oldest informant in Deir Ghassaneh, from the Shu'aibi clan, age 96.
6. Abu-Zuhair, (1984), son of the last sheikh of Deir Ghassaneh, age 90.
7. Muysar, (1985-1986), a woman from the Shu'aibi clan, age 48.
8. Um-Ezzat, (1985), an elderly woman originally from the village of Mejdal Sadik, married to a Barghouthi, age 84.