

151. Labor in Israel, Vol. XXVIII, No. 3, April-May, 1976, p. 3. Publication of Histadrut International Department. The Histadrut (General Federation of Labor in Israel) is simultaneously a trade union and the second major employer in Israel. It was established in the Yishuv, is one of the formative elements of the State, functioned as a State within the settlers' community in Palestine until the establishment of the State in 1948.
152. IPS Bulletin, September 16, 1973. Cited also in Facts.